1) First Councillor's order on Police file no. 134 of 10-11:-

(Basavapalem mail robbery)

"I heard of this case during my tour. Govt. are kept in perfect ignorance of important occurrences in the districts. Sensational murders dacoities by professional gangs, robberies attended with great pers violence, outbreaks of particular forms of heinous crime such as poisoning human beings or cattle these do not come to the notice of Govt. Loss of life while in police custody is another such instance It is necessary that Govt should get first information in all cases of general public interest. . . . .

2) Please draft an order to the D.S. of Police"

Proceedings of the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore, Judicial and Legislative (Police), dated 7th July 1911.

No. J. 68—Police 197-10-1, dated Bangalore, 7th July 1911.

Order.—Government are pleased to direct that first intelligence in all cases of serious crime, such as murders attended with unusual violence or cruelty, dacoities by professional gangs, loss of life while in police custody, outbreaks of particular forms of heinous crime such as poisoning human beings or cattle on a large scale, and generally in all cases exciting public interest or causing public alarm, should be communicated to Government by the Inspector-General of Police without delay. In cases of unusual importance or gravity, the communication should be made as soon as possible even though it be imperfect. Prompt information should also be furnished to Government of accidents or other occurrences of unusual nature, e.g., earthquakes, floods, upsetting of ferries, fall of public buildings, etc., resulting in serious injury to human beings or loss of life. It is not the desire of Government that every event of importance or case of heinous offence should, as a matter of course, be reported to them, but intelligence only of such cases or events as, in the opinion of the Inspector-General of Police, are of sufficient importance to be forthwith brought to the immediate notice of Government should be communicated to them.
